SWEDISH KING BESTOWED DOUBLE PRIZES TO CRAIG

Old Glory Waved Over Stadium as Token of Victory in Finishing Event

STOCKHOLM, July 16.—American victors in the Olympic Games were photographed in the stadium today. The event attracted as large a crowd as had the races themselves. The Swedes cheered enthusiastically. The Americans are leaving an excellent impression here and are on good terms with all.

The death of the Portuguese Marathon runner, Lazarro, was the only depressing incident of the 1912 Olympic Games.

The American athletes divided into two groups as Easterners and Westerners, and played an exhibition baseball game in the stadium in the presence of thousands. The Easterners won by the score of six to three. The game elicited great applause. The Swedes declared they will introduce the sport in Stockholm.

AMERICA LEADS ALL IN OLYMPIC VICTORIES—CRAIG FIRST—LAUREL WINNER

America's flag was waved at the Olympic Stadium in Stockholm for a hat of brilliant victories, and the great ten days of track and field sports closed last evening with the finish of the decathlon, consisting of ten events that called for skill, strength and agility, won in a big lead by Jim Thorpe, the marvelous Carlisle School Indian, the flag was still waving. James D. Hughes of Los Angeles was sixth in the decathlon event. The previous big victory of the day won by Americans was the 1600 meter relay race won by the following team: M. W. Sheppard, Irish-American A. C.; Edward F. Lindberg, Chicago A. C.; James E. Meredith, Mercersburg Academy, and Charles D. Redpath, Syracuse University.

When the award of prizes was made last evening, the Americans were first in line by reason of their overwhelming victory, leading the nations in totals won during the Olympic. Ralph C. Craig of Detroit was presented two laurel wreaths and two gold medals by King Gustav, who was with his family in the royal box at the stadium. These prizes were for Craig's victories in the 100-meter and 200-meter races.

The Olympic will continue for three weeks, with military riding, the Olympic regatta and yachting events.

STEAMERS CRASHED TO-DAY OFF BEACH

Rosedale Was Damaged But
All Passengers Saved; First
Report Was Alarming

NEW YORK, July 16.—The steamer Rosedale couched today with the steamer Naussau off Rockaway Beach, and a large hole was smashed in the Rosedale's port bow. The Rosedale was beached and the passengers safely removed. The Naussau was going into drydock.

The first report received on the water front here was to the effect that the steamer Rosedale had sunk off Rockaway Beach, and that many of the passengers and crew had drowned. Later information, however, disproved the first alarming report.

Taft Cables to U.S. Victors in Fifth Olympiad

WASHINGTON, July 16.—President Taft cabled congratulations to the victorious American athletes at Stockholm following the receipt of a cablegram from Commissioner Sullivan. Sullivan's message read:

"Representatives of the United States again scored a glorious victory in the fifth Olympiad track and field section. Our men behind the guns, rifles and revolvers also lead the world. Our cyclists and swimmers scored heavily. The riding competition is not concluded. In this great world's exhibition there each nation enters its best type of men. America again leads the world."

Taft replied:

"I am greatly pleased with the fine showing of the American athletes in the fifth Olympiad. Heartiest congratulations to commissioner and athletes."

"WILLIAM H. TAFT."

PACIFIC COAST MATRIMONIAL DURBAR

Miss Jennie Crocker's Wedding
Today Followed by Gorgeous Scene

BANQUET LAID IN MIDST OF UNRIVALED BEAUTY

Heiress to $15,000,000 Spent
$60,000 on Floral Splendors
and Superb Accessories

HILLSBORO, Cal., July 16.—In the presence of the greatest gathering of the ultra-fashionable rich ever seen in the West, a $60,000 matrimonial Durbar was celebrated here today, following the wedding of Miss Jennie Crocker, California's $15,000,000 heiress, and Malcolm Whitman, New York lawyer and former tennis star of the East, which was performed at St. Matthews' Episcopal church, San Mateo, by the Right Rev. Bishop William Ford Nichols, at high noon.

The wedding celebration, for which an army of florists, artists, landscape gardeners, sculptors, architects and carpenters had been preparing the extensive Crocker estates at Hillsboro for weeks, rivalled the most famous nuptial displays of New York's Fifth avenue set. Following the church ceremony, which was the most simple feature of the day's festivities, the guests, wearing an aggregate of $1,500,000 worth of jewels, were entertained with a wedding breakfast in a temporary pavilion erected at a cost of $15,000. It will be torn down tomorrow.

In this pavilion the guests seated themselves amid a floral spectacle of unrivalled beauty. Orchids predominated, $60,000 having been spent on this flower alone in providing the display. Hundreds of thousands of roses, for which California growers are world famous, as well as many other specimens of nature's and the florist's art, adorned the banquet boards or surrounded the feasters on walls and ceiling. In and out among their bright coloring, fountains sparkled and white statues gleamed.

During the feast 200 automobiles which had brought the elite of San Francisco and other California cities to the scene were parked along the spacious drives and beautiful gardens of the Crocker estates. Other guests arrived from various parts of the Pacific coast and many from the East, by train.

The wedding was preceded by a procession of limousines from the Crocker estate to the church. Here the ceremony of the ring was performed beneath a bower of roses, and the guests hastened back to begin the real Durbar festivities.

Throughout the afternoon a picked squad of fifty special police, including many of the best detectives and plain clothesmen of the coast, loitered about the grounds, through the breakfast pavilion or in the Crocker mansion, as a protection for the millions of dollars in jewelry with which the women guests were bedecked. The one prosaic feature was the presence of the motion picture man. As at the real Durbar in India, every little incident of the day was pictured by the busy cameras stationed at points of vantage about the grounds. When the films are ready, Mrs. Whitman will present sets of them to a number of chosen friends.

After the reception Whitman and his bride left for the fashionable Del Monte Hotel, near Monterey, to remain until July 26, when they will leave with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Templeton Crocker for a month's honeymoon in the South seas.

Miss Crocker is the daughter of the late Colonel Charles Frederick Crocker, one of the founders of the great Southern Pacific railroad. He was one of the "Big Four" in pioneer California, the others being Mark Hopkins, Senator Stanford and Huntington.

EAST FOURTH IS THE LIKELY ROUTE

Petition Asks That Street be Paved to Meet Highway
Requirements

THREATENED DITCHES TO GO UNDER GROUND

Advertising and Printing Have a Round With City Attorney in Wrath

It seems more than probable that the state highway route through Santa Ana will be on North Main from the north and on East Fourth from the east. There has been no question but what North Main would be selected, but there was a question as to which of three streets would be used eastward.

At the meeting of the City Trustees last night Col. S. H. Finley presented a petition for paving East Fourth from the railroads to the city limits. That was practically a bid for the state highway route. At a meeting a week ago about forty-five residents of First street and Chestnut avenue expressed a desire to have the city pay for the paving of whatever street is selected.

Not all of the residents of First street are satisfied to let East Fourth have the route, for a petition for paving that street is now in circulation. However, East Fourth seems to have a grip on the situation.

Up and Coming

Property owners on East Fourth street between the Santa Fe railroad and Maybury street petitioned to have the street paved with pavement suitable to the proposed state highway project pavement, provided the cost be not over $1.55 per front foot.

Col. Finley said the petition does not represent a majority, but that he believed it would be impossible to get a majority against it, which would be necessary to block Vrooman Act proceedings. The petition was granted and the city attorney was instructed to begin proceedings under the Vrooman Act, the city engineer to draw plans and specifications.

Alderman said that there is a petition being circulated on First street, and he thought it best to get both First and Chestnut paved before the matter is finally concluded.

Grubb thought the matter in such shape that the city could adopt a resolution assuring the state Highway Commission that the city will undertake to see that the state route, on whatever streets selected by the state commission, through the city is paved.

McPhee said the resolution presented for passage by the county commission leaves the power of selection of the route through the city entirely with the state commission.

Alderman said M. M. Crookshank, president of the county commission, said East Fourth, East First or East Chestnut would be acceptable. The resolution, however, was not so worded.

It was decided to inform the State Highway Commission of just what the city had done, namely, started Vrooman Act proceedings to pave East Fourth to the city limits.

Grubb stated that for the section of North Main street between the bridge and the city limits is in shape to be paved, the P. E. having placed its tracks and paved its portion. Other trustees suggested that it would be well to stir the residents of that part of North Main to pave at once.

The board received an invitation to meet with the Redondo Beach representatives to see if something cannot be done to get the P. E. to put on more cars so that an end may be put to the condition that makes it necessary for passengers to stand. The meeting has as its object the betterment of the service. Mayor Ey was named as a committee to attend the meeting.

Alderman was named as a committee to investigate the petition of the Chamber of Commerce for a sink on the second floor of the city hall. The sink is to be used in the work of processing exhibits.

An ordinance was read and finally passed fixing the width of sidewalks on Bush street between First and Second and between Ninth and Tenth between Main and French.

Asks for $4500

The annual report of the Public Library board was read. The board asked for an appropriation of $4500 for the next year's work. The report was referred to a committee to look over preparatory to being in a position to act on the proposed appropriation.

The annual report of the city clerk was read. Clerk Burke asked that an auditing committee be appointed. Alderman, Greenleaf and McPhee were appointed on the committee.

The city engineer was instructed

BAILEY SAYS BITTER OF PRESIDENT TAFT

Charges Him With "Malicious and Infamous" Falsehood as to Bailey's Course Regarding Senator Lorimer

WASHINGTON, July 16.—Senator Bailey of Texas today arraigned President Taft for what he called the president's "meddlesome and officious" course in the Lorimer case. Bailey made the attack when he spoke on his resolution which asserts that it is the sense of the senate that any executive interference with the senate's right to try its own members was not contemplated in the constitution.

He insisted that President Taft could not have even read the record of the Lorimer case when he wrote Roosevelt about it, condemning Lorimer, because the record was not then printed.

"Has the senate reached such a point of degradation that the president must summon senators to the White House and urge them to purify this body? Is that the president's idea?" the speaker queried.

Bailey then denounced the president's reference to "Senator cludbon" as a slander. He said:

"When the president penned the line that I was determined to keep Lorimer here, he penned a malicious and infamous falsehood. No one knew so better than himself."

Bailey concluded his speech by referring to Roosevelt's and Taft's exchange of compliments saying:

"If what the ex-president says about the present president is true, it might furnish a basis for the impeachment of one and the disqualification of the other. Andrew Johnson was impeached for a less serious offense than President Taft committed in writing this letter."

WILSON NAMES CAMPAIGN LEADER AND SETTLES VARIOUS MATTERS

CHICAGO, July 16.—Gov. Woodrow Wilson will make his fight for the presidency of the United States in the East. Although no definite announcement has been made to that effect, it is practically settled that the general headquarters for the Democratic campaign will be in New York.

Chicago will have a divisional headquarters. Just how soon it will be established or who will be in charge has not been determined. Those matters are all to be agreed upon by William F. McCombs, who was elected chairman of the national committee yesterday, and by Governor Wilson himself. Another personal choice made by Gov. Wilson was that of J. E. Davies of Wisconsin as secretary to succeed Urey Woodson. John L. Martin of St. Louis was re-elected as sergeant-at-arms.

Other officers will be chosen by the executive committee that, by Wilson's request, is to consist of not less than nine members, five of whom are to belong to the national committee. The members of this committee, who have been practically agreed upon, are: William F. McCombs, Delaware; E. S. Hudspeeth, New Jersey; Josephus Daniels, North Carolina; A. Mitchell Palmer, Pennsylvania; John T. McGraw, West Virginia, representing the national committee; Senators Gore, Oklahoma; O'Gorman, New York, and Culberson, Texas.

The formal opening of the campaign will be on Aug. 7, when Wilson will be officially notified of his nomination. Headquarters, however, will be opened at once.

"DARROW TO GOOD TO GIVE BRIBES"

So Said Bert Franklin, According to Testimony of Los Angeles Lawyer

LOS ANGELES, July 16.—That Bert H. Franklin, the confessed bribe giver and the state's star witness, declared of his own free will that Clarence Darrow was "absolutely straight, and too good to give a dollar for a dishonest purpose," was the testimony in the Darrow trial today, of Frank Dominguez, an attorney connected with Earl Rogers' office. Franklin made this declaration in the presence of witnesses, Dominguez said.

Peter Pirotte, a Venice policeman, concluded his testimony, offering nothing new. George Hood, a Palm Springs, a close friend of Franklin, brought the "dark, mysterious stranger," who has already figured, into the case again. He said Franklin told him that this man, who gave him money for bribery purposes, was within thirty feet when the money was passed to the juror. He then disappeared and had not been seen since.

He admitted that he gave about a quarter of a million to Park's campaign. He explained that serving on the campaign committee, he did not expect to contribute so much, but gave more as needs arose. He denied any knowledge of contributions by corporations.

GANG MURDER STARTLED NEW YORK

Herman Rosenthal Shot Dead
By Unknown Men—Gambling
King Was "Squealer"

STARTLING REVELATIONS IN HIGH LIFE EXPECTED

Believed Politicians and Police
Involved in Case and Late
Gambling Scandal

NEW YORK, July 16.—The most sensational gang murder in the history of New York's underworld was committed at 2 o'clock this morning when Herman Rosenthal, the noted gambler, who was the center of the latest gambling scandal, was shot and killed in the front of the Hotel Metropolis, by men who arrived and departed in a high-power automobile, out-distancing the pursuing taxicabs. Hundreds of people were in the streets. Fifty police were on the scene within ten minutes.

The gamblers are reported to have turned against Rosenthal because he "squealed." Mrs. Rosenthal alleges hounding by the police. District Attorney Whitman stated that Rosenthal visited him yesterday and intimated that the "police were after him." Startling developments implicating many throughout the city in gambling affairs, are predicted.

Rosenthal was recognized as the agent of certain influential downtown politicians, representing the bankroll of many prominent sporting men and politicians nationally known. It was openly asserted yesterday that he was ordered to leave town by patrons because he talked too much. It was in connection with these alleged orders that he went to the Hotel Metropolis where he was killed. At least three men leaped from the auto when it drew up to the curb. All began firing. Rosenthal fell immediately.

Witnesses gave different descriptions of the men. A chauffeur named Libby has been arrested and will be held pending developments.

Late this afternoon the police and District Attorney Whitman, predicted that the murderers would be found before night. They claimed Libby was breaking down and might tell whether he knows anything. It is generally expected that developments may startle the nation. It is reported that many of the gambling fraternity are leaving the city, fearing the divulgence of the story of police protection to gambling.

Rosenthal in his statement to the district attorney yesterday alleged that Lieutenant Becker of the "strong arm squad" was his partner in running the gambling house. Becker has issued a denial. He said he had only a speaking acquaintance with Rosenthal. He was introduced by "Big Tim" Sullivan. The city's entire detective force is busy. It is intimated that ramifications may extend far "up-town."

Swartz said he had advised his son to go and kill himself, thus being no further disgrace to the family. He believes the boy heeded the advice.

Members of the Swartz and Connors families testified before the grand jury today.

WOULD RAISE THE STANDARD OF THE CALIFORNIA WALNUT

Prospects for This Year's Crop Extra Good—To Be Short of Last Year's Record Crop

Los Angeles Times: The California Walnut Growers' Association has started a campaign to raise the already high standard of the Southern California product. A committee has been appointed to make a report upon the plantings and the methods of cultivation, as well as on conditions in the packing-houses. Following up on such changes will be made as will insure uniform quality of production.

By this move better commercial relations with the consumers all over the country are to be established and a great improvement and development of the product will begin. According to Fred A. Hazard of the Walnut Growers' Association, the consumer must be shown that efforts are being made to ship him the best grade of nuts possible.

Furthermore, Hazard states, after this work has been carried out a unit-form brand will be placed on the entire output of the California Walnut Growers' Association. Hitherto various associations have had different brands, but it is far better to have one uniform pack and brand in order that consumers may learn to recognize the walnuts from this state, because a high-class product is being aimed at by the association.

Thirteen subsidiary associations are affiliated under the central organization in Los Angeles. Six of them are in Orange county, two in Los Angeles and five in Ventura and Santa Barbara counties, and their membership numbers 1500 to 2000 growers. The affiliated associations are interested in the present movement toward establishing a high-class product.

The prospects for the walnut crop of this year are extra good, although it is estimated that it will hardly be as large as that of last year, which exceeded that of any previous season by 4000 tons, when all the producing districts are included.

Early for Conclusions

J. G. Newton of J. K. Armsby and Company asserts that it is a little too soon to come to any safe conclusion regarding the production of this year. "For last year," he said, "the yield is now estimated to have been 12,500 tons, although we were only satisfied recently as to these figures, and the exact record will probably be received in a week. From present indications, however, it is likely that this year's production will not be as large, although there are many young groves coming into bearing which help to maintain and increase the tonnage."

"Walnut orchards stretch from Goleta on the north to San Juan Capistrano on the south, and the producing counties are Orange, Santa Barbara, Ventura and Los Angeles. The No. 1 softshell constitutes the bulk of the walnuts sold. A few hardshells are raised and a limited quantity of banded nuts. Also, after nuts have gone over the grading screens and the smaller sizes are separated, a small quantity of No. 2's are sold.

"California walnuts are consumed all over the United States, and the southern part of this state is the only producing section for the crop from a commercial standpoint. A few walnuts are raised in Middle and Northern California, and in Oregon and Washington, but not in commercial quantities.

"During an average year, the growers receive something like $3,000,000 for the entire yield. Prices are based on a consideration of the size of the crop, the financial condition of the country, how early the output can be put on the market, and also the quantity of foreign nuts with which the California product may have to compete, as well as how early importations come in.

"Great efforts are being made by means of careful cultivation and attendance on trees, by cutting out all inferior qualities, and by better bleaching, grading, processing, etc., to turn out every year a finer crop than that of the preceding year. The associations take the lead in these efforts."

Large Acreage

Probably nearly 30,000 acres are cultivated to walnuts in Southern California. The production has grown rapidly but despite this fact the importations are still exceedingly large and during the fiscal year of 1910, over 10,500 tons of unshelled walnuts in excess of 5600 tons of shelled nuts were brought into this country. The latter do not, however, come into competition with the California trade, it is stated. The product from this state is better in quality than that imported and with the endeavors that are now being made to improve walnuts, there is little likelihood of the trade with Europe ever hurting that of California, even though the growers in foreign countries have the advantage of being able to market their crop at a lower rate.

DECLINE IN TUBERCULOSIS DEATHS SAVES 27,000 LIVES YEAR

In the decade from 1901 to 1910, the death rate from tuberculosis in the United States declined from 196.9 for each 100,000 persons living to 169.2, a decrease of 18.7 per cent while the general death rate, including all causes of death, declined only one-half as fast, or at the rate of 9.7 per cent, from 1655.0 to 1495.8.

These figures were given out in a statement issued today by The National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis. They are based on data abstracted from the reports of the United States Bureau of the Census, and cover the registration area in this country. According to the statement, the tuberculosis death rate has declined steadily since 1904, when it was 201.6. On the other hand, the general death rate shows a fluctuation downward in general trend, but not as steady as the tuberculosis death rate. The decline in the tuberculosis death rate in the last ten years means a saving of 27,000 lives at the present time.

In certain cities, such as New York, Boston, Cleveland and Chicago, and in states like Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut, the decline in the tuberculosis death rate is much more marked than in the country at large.

The National Association says that there are many factors working together to cause the decline in the tuberculosis rate, such factors as the change in the character of our urban population, increased sanitation, and better housing, but probably as potent a factor as any has been the nation wide anti-tuberculosis campaign. "It may be foretold with considerable certainty," the statement concludes, "that when the effects of the present rapidly increasing provision for the care of tuberculosis patients shall have become evident, the decline in the death rate from consumption in the coming decade will be even more marked than in the last one."

SHOWING HIM SHE DID CARE

Sweet Girl Accepted Invitation to Amateur Art Exhibition From Grouchy Young Man.

"I have called," said the young man, "to tell you that I am about to start on a long journey."

"Oh," replied the sweet girl, "how interesting. Tell me all about it. When do you expect to start?"

"In two or three days. I may never come back alive."

"I'm sorry to hear that. Where are you going?"

"To the City of Mexico."

"Have you business interests there?"

"No, but traveling in Mexico is very dangerous, you know."

"Then why do you go?"

"Well, I have been thinking it over, and it seems to me that I may as well go. Nobody seems to care whether I remain here or not."

"I'm sure it can't be as bad as that. Isn't there any girl that you ever invite to go to the theater or—or anything?"

"Would you be sorry I was going if I ever invited you to go to anything?"

"—I—I—well, I might be."

"I'm glad to hear you say that. I've got a couple of tickets to an amateur art exhibition for Thursday evening. Will you go?"

"On one condition."

"What is it?"

"That you will not insist on paying my car fare."

Amalgamated Company Succeeds in Shutting Off Water in Deep Hole

FULLERTON, July 16.—The Amalgamated Oil Company in the Fullerton field has succeeded in solving the problem of deep water after many months of effort. This problem and the infiltration of water in the oil sands have been deemed a serious menace, but the Amalgamated has made good in shutting off the water in No. 3.

This well is the deepest on the lease, being 3992 feet, and is now after many months of idleness producing 300 barrels of seventeen gravity oil from the 3400-foot level.

The lower water for several weeks came in at a temperature of 137 degrees Fahrenheit, hotter than the hand could stand, and the source proved inexhaustible. The well was finally plugged so that it is producing a fine oil devoid of any water whatever.

This was accomplished by putting down 400 feet of cement or concrete reinforced with iron shavings, the first time such was ever undertaken in the Fullerton field. A well that formerly looked like a failure is now making money as a result of the experiment.

ANOTHER OIL PLAN IS ON

Orange News: What may prove to be the opening of a great new industry in this vicinity was given a start Friday evening, with the organization of the East Fullerton Oil Company, in which both local and outside capital is interested. The forming of the company means that drilling for oil will be actively engaged in as soon as possible.

For the last few weeks those interested in the enterprise have had an expert at work quietly prospecting along certain fields where it seemed likely that oil could be found. The result was that on the engineer's recommendation, a lease of 160 acres on the Bixby ranch, east of Olive, has been secured, at which point the company will direct its operations. The lease is directly in line with the big Fullerton and Whittier oil fields and is believed to offer every prospect for successful drilling. The company has expressed its intentions of entering into the project at once and asserts that no energy or expense will be spared to reach oil. A new outfit is to be obtained immediately.

The directors of the company are Dr. Geo. H. Dobson of Santa Ana, McClure of New York, McCollum and Melford Steele of Los Angeles, M. L. Willets, D. A. Blank and M. Eltiste of Orange. The officers are Dr. Dobson, president; McCollum, vice president; Steele, secretary.

Board Elects Officers

The high school board met Saturday noon for the purpose of organizing for the coming year. The same officers were continued, namely: A. A. Lee, president; Geo. C. Woods, secretary. Trustees Jones and Crawford were continued on the committee on supplies and Messrs. Lee and W. M. Fishback on repairs.

Two new teachers were hired for the coming year. They were Miss Winnifred Haig of Alhambra, for music and drawing, and Mr. Claude Peck, for chemistry and physics.

The finance committee report on monthly bills was adopted.

NEW LOCKJAW TREATMENT

Dr. Pierce Kintzing Uses Method With Complete Success For the Ninth Time

BALTIMORE, July 16.—The survival of Bernard Myer, a 9-year-old boy, from lockjaw, has increased interest in the method of the treatment which was recently used in the case of Dr. Pierce Kintzing. This is the ninth of a series of lockjaw cases in which Dr. Kintzing and his assistants at the Franklin Square Hospital have used the treatment with success.

The remedy is a solution of phenol of 10 per cent strength, diluted to suit the cases and administered by hypodermic injections deep into the muscles.

The injections are made at intervals of about three hours at the start, with longer intervals as the patient rallies. The full adult dose is equivalent to about one grain of pure crystalline phenol, ten drops of the 10 per cent solution.

ORANGE SHIPPING RECORDS BROKEN

Redlands Leads World With Orange Shipments of Over
5200 Carloads in 1912

REDLANDS, July 16.—Orange shipping records are being broken this year as the Redlands district total for 1912 will show a crop of more than 5200 carloads. During the last three years it has been a close race between Riverside and Redlands for the honor of being the greatest orange shipping district in the world. A slight advantage has favored Redlands, though Riverside has a larger lemon crop and the Riverside total for citrus fruits several years exceeded the Redlands total. This year, however, Redlands is at the forefront and already 2803 cars of oranges have been shipped as against 2500 cars for Riverside.

Estimates made by packers today showed about 400 cars of oranges in the Redlands district yet to ship. The large shipments this year are remarkable in view of the damage by frost and wind that caused the throwing out as culls of about 600 cars from Redlands, the largest percentage of oranges ever discarded. Without the cold weather there would have been a 6000-car crop.

Heavy orange planting in Redlands during the last seven years has caused Redlands to take first place in large shipments. Almost 1000 acres of young groves have just come into general bearing and the crops from these groves will become heavier each season, adding, of course, to the Redlands total.

A 5200-car crop with 354 boxes to the car means that Redlands shipped 1,886,800 boxes of oranges and with the small sizes prevailing this year the average was about 172 oranges to the box, or more than 300,000,000 oranges, or about four oranges for every inhabitant of the United States.

Electric Cars of Aluminum
L'Electricien, Paris: One of the Swiss electric tramway companies is commencing to build its cars of aluminum, at least a good part. One reason for using this metal is that the weight of the car is much lessened, and another point is that the painting of the car lasts much longer. It was found that cars built with iron plates soon show rusting, and the paint suffers much from this. In Zurich, where the new method is being tried, this is an important point, as the cars are painted in a light color. In the first place, the metal was used for the roofs of the cars, and the result was so good from the absence of rust that it was decided to go further and to use it for the body covering of the car and part of the flooring. A metal known as duraluminum is used here, and it has also a small amount of copper added so as to make it harder.

LOS ANGELES P. OF C.
ENCOURAGES N. G. C.

Asks Members Who Are Employes of Guardsmen to Keep
Men on Pay in Absence

LOS ANGELES, July 16.—That the National Guard and regular army joint maneuvers and encampment in San Francisco, August 10-23, may have a full attendance of members of the Seventh Regiment, California National Guard, the Chamber of Commerce adopted resolutions yesterday urging employers to allow members of the military organization on their pay rolls a leave of absence. Col. W. G. Schreiber has been making a personal canvass, so far as it is possible, and it was through his request that the Chamber of Commerce adopted the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce hereby lends its unqualified support to all the organizations of the National Guard, and particularly to the battery of field artillery recently organized and mustered into the service of the National Guard of the State of California, and hereby most heartily encourages all male citizens between the ages of 18 and 45 years, to enlist in said service, and further strongly appeals to all the members of the Chamber of Commerce to lend their great and valuable assistance in actively urging upon their employees the patriotism of service to the state and country.

"And the board of directors of this Chamber of Commerce does urge its members to assure such of their employees as may be enlisted in the service of the National Guard of the State of California, that they will be afforded every possible opportunity to attend all encampments of instruction and general army maneuvers, incidental to said service, without fear of jeopardizing their positions or employment."

It is expected that the maneuvers will be the most successful ever held on the Pacific coast.

Progressive Farming
Buffalo Enquirer: Western farmers have to a large degree relegated the plow to the scrap heap and in its stead are turning the earth on their extensive farms with dynamite. It has been found that the old way of attempting to plow several thousand acres, even with the large, motor propelled plows, is expensive and takes a much longer time than should be given in preparing the soil for seed, and that dynamite carefully distributed, will, when exploded, bring about satisfactory results. In many ways the scientific farmer is overcoming great obstacles that confront the man who tills the soil after the fashion of his forefathers, and the former is harvesting the biggest crops.

GOOD SHOWS FOR GRAND OPERA HOUSE

Capt. Uim's Bookings For the Next Season Include Miss
Ethel Barrymore

Capt. N. A. Uim, manager of the Grand Opera House, has secured bookings for next season that indicate that the patrons of the Grand Opera House will have a lot of good things next winter. The show-house has but one attraction this summer, a choir having a date for the latter part of the month. Then will come a vacation until September when the first of next season's bookings will be due.

Capt. Uim has secured a booking for Ethel Barrymore. Her arrangements were made for her appearance here speaks a good deal for the standing acquired by the Santa Ana opera house. Rose Stahl is also booked to appear here.

Among the shows that Capt. Uim will have in his theater are "Prince of Pilsen," "Chocolate Soldier," "Merry Widow," "Madame Sherry," "The Red Rose," and "In Old Kentucky." He is to have "Rose Main," one of the new plays, that has had a wonderful run in the East.

Since Capt. Uim took charge of the Grand Opera House he has expended no small sum of money in making improvements. The dressing-rooms have been re-built, and the entire house made more attractive and pleasing. His efforts have met with the approval of the public, as shown by an increasing patronage, presaging a successful season for the new bookings.

Huntington Beach has been chosen year after year as the place of meeting for the Southern California Veterans' Association, Aug. 13-23; Socialists encampment July 1-7; Methodist camp meeting July 21-August 4.

One of the most popular attractions of Huntington Beach is its "Tent City," located only three blocks from the ocean, convenient to car lines. The grounds are attractively laid out and planted with trees and shrubbery.

Huntington Beach homes are surrounded by beautiful lawns and gardens, the rich character of the soil and the abundant supply of pure water making it easy to grow anything.

The announcement of Mr. Hans V. Weisel's candidacy for the office of assemblyman from this district is definitely and formally made in this paper today.

Mr. Weisel is an attorney, with offices at Anaheim, where he, together with his partner, Mr. Roger C. Dutton, under the firm name of Weisel & Dutton, have built up an enviable reputation.

He was born in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, on Nov. 6th, 1883, and came to Anaheim with his parents twenty years ago, where he has grown up with the city, working always for its welfare and the welfare of Orange county. In 1910, he was president of the Anaheim Chamber of Commerce, and during the latter part of the same year married Miss Evangeline Gentry, who also lived at Anaheim.

The young attorney graduated from the University of Southern California College of Law in 1907, after completing the three years' course in two years.

Mr. Weisel is a progressive Republican and a firm and uncompromising advocate of all measures which tend to promote the welfare of the people. He is a strong supporter of Theodore Roosevelt.

From his first entrance into the political field he has worked for clean politics and is always on the side of the people. He is a man of absolute mental and moral integrity and will perform his duty deliberately and fearlessly.

Mr. Weisel will announce his platform within a few days.

NOT MUCH JOY IN THIS

The Taft organs have been indulging in a good deal of "tumult and shouting" over the attitude of Governor Hadley of Missouri on the Roosevelt question. The governor has authorized the following statement regarding his views, and if the Tafters can get much comfort out of it, they are consoled with very little:

He thinks that if a Roosevelt electoral ticket is placed on the Missouri ballot, Republicans not willing to vote for the Taft electors, and who otherwise may not vote at all may vote for the Roosevelt electors and the regular Republican state and local tickets, and he says that for obvious reasons he is opposed to any rule of proscription which would drive from the Republican party and from the support of the state and local tickets those Republicans who may not feel disposed to support Mr. Taft, because they do not believe him to be the rightful nominee of the Chicago convention.—Riverside Press.

DEVELOPMENT OF THE SPECIAL CHARTER IDEA FOR COUNTIES

Special charters for counties are under serious consideration by several Southern California counties. A board of freeholders is at work on one for San Bernardino county, and Imperial county has just elected a board for the same purpose. Riverside county is investigating, and Orange county is sitting up and taking notice.

The freeholders for San Bernardino county strongly favor the commission plan—similar to that adopted by so many cities. Reporting their proceedings, the Redlands Facts says:

Considering the report of the committee on officers other than supervisors, the freeholders Saturday afternoon developed still further the commission idea, by agreeing that not only shas. all county officers be appointive, but the board of supervisors also has the power of appointment of all deputies, on the nomination of the official in whose office they are to be employed. That is to say, in effect, no official can appoint a deputy whom the supervisors will not confirm.

Some of the freeholders wish to carry the matter even further, and practically relieve the officials of responsibility for their deputies and their work, by making the latter responsible directly and only to the supervisors. Opposition to this developed, however, on the ground that it would subvert discipline, and a decision was not arrived at.

Extensive Consolidation
By the decision of yesterday, at least four offices are consolidated out of existence. The tax collector is merged with the treasurer, the public administrator with the sheriff, the coroner with the district attorney, and the clerk with the recorder. Some differences of opinion arose with reference to this latter, but it was agreed to by a substantial majority.

The district attorney is also interested in the second consolidation mentioned, that of the public administrator with the sheriff's office, for the reason that under such conditions the district attorney would become the attorney for the public administrator. Whether this would result in any savings to estates is doubtful, for the courts would probably allow fees as before, but they would be turned into the county treasury by both public administrator and his attorney.

Something New
In connection with the subject of consolidation, Dr. Lombard, of Redlands, sprung something new, for he proposed that the county go into the business of furnishing abstracts and establish the abstract department probably in charge of one of the present officials, and on the theory that the treasurer has little to do, he seems to be in line for the acquisition, if it is agreed to, although in fact the bookkeeping in the treasurer's office, not only for the county, but for something like 100 school districts as well, keeps one man reasonably engaged.

In reply to Dr. Lombard's suggestion, it was pointed out that the abstract and title companies furnish guarantees with certificates of title, but Dr. Lombard thought that people would be willing to take the county's abstract, even without the guarantee.

The suggestion was discussed and finally referred to the committee on officers other than supervisors. Two other new features agreed to have to do with the auditor's office and the creation of the office of county purchasing agent, who is to be the county's buyer for all kinds of supplies. No official or board may buy anything except through the purchasing agent, and when wishing supplies, must first make a requisition on the auditor. If the auditor issues it, the requisition then goes to the board of supervisors for approval. If the supervisors approve it, the requisition then goes to the purchasing agent, who buys or furnishes from a stock on hand, the required supplies.

Changes Considered
Considerable changes are proposed in the duties of the office. He is really made the county expert as well as auditor, and required to check through the accounts of all other county and township officers at least once in three months, and report to the board of supervisors, while once in six months, the board must employ an expert who is to check the auditor's office.

All other officers are required to report monthly to the auditor, with reference to the financial transactions of their office, also the office inventory, and until these reports are filed the officials' warrants for the former month must not be drawn.

The only serious division on the subject of officers arose when it came to those of the townships. The majority of the committee reported in favor of the appointment of justices and constables by the supervisors, while William Gurr, in the minority, had reported in favor of the election of these strictly local officers. Judge Hanna, of Colton, led the fight for appointment, declaring it would improve the standard of township officials, and the committee had also recommended that in townships of 4000 and over, justices must be licensed attorneys. On the vote, with five freeholders absent, the board split, five to five, and the decision went over to a later meeting.

LIFE HISTORY, ENEMIES AND THE REMEDIES FOR CUT WORM

(By A. J. Cook, State Horticultural Commissioner)

This year has been a "cutworm year" in northern and central California, as these cutworms, more properly caterpillars, have been very common and destructive. They are called cutworms from the habit they have of climbing up a tomato, corn, cabbage or other plant and cutting it off—eating but little and leaving the remainder to wilt and die. The one in question, Peridroma saucia, is called in California the "Army Worm," from its habit of marching in vast numbers from one field to another. This migration arises probably from its great numbers and does not always characterize the species. These and several other cutworms often climb trees and vines and do serious mischief by feeding on the foliage, and are referred to as "climbing cutworms." In the eight years that I have been in California, there have been four of these "cutworm years." One, 1900, was very bad. I rode in early summer on my bicycle from Oceanside to Escondido and must have killed thousands of these larvae as I crushed them with my wheel. In 1906 they climbed the orange trees and bored into the fruit, destroying not a little. Many thought that this was due to the fact that cover crops, vetch and peas, were grown in the groves. The cover crops might have attracted the moths, furnishing a good nidus for the many eggs, but otherwise would doubtless aid to protect, as it would furnish food and thus make the climbing unnecessary.

The moth is cosmopolitan, as it is common in every part of the world, and is very destructive throughout the Pacific coast states as well as in British Columbia, though here, as everywhere, it comes in destructive numbers only occasionally. This California army worm has not only a wide distribution, but it is a promiscuous feeder as well. Scarce any crop of field, garden or orchard is not subject to attack. In 1900 I saw it clean vegetable and truck gardens absolutely, except it drew the line at onions, though these have often been totally destroyed by the pest. It not only takes potatoes, sweet potatoes, lettuce, beets, carrots, etc., but all the ornamentals fall before its voracious appetite. When very numerous it usually destroys the first, second and may injure the third cutting of alfalfa. Apple, pear, peach, currant, loganberry, blackberry, raspberry, gooseberry, grape and all citrus trees are victims of this gourmand. Weeds also are to a less degree destroyed.

Life History
The eggs of this insect are laid in regular, compact masses on the plant, often to the number of sixty or seventy. I have found them thick on the twigs of orange trees. They are hemispherical, rest on their bases, and are beautifully ribbed from apex to base. They hatch in about three weeks, or less if the weather is very warm.

The larva, or caterpillar, with its sixteen legs, is very varied in coloration. Indeed, Dr. C. V. Riley named this the "Variegated Cutworm." It is gray, or brownish-gray, or even greenish or pinkish; though it may vary from light to almost black. Five conspicuous white spots along the center of the back near the head end are characteristic of this larva. When full grown it is one and one fourth inches long. It remains in the earth by day, or in the shade of the plant, feeding mostly by night. It pupates in the earth. At first the pupa is very light yellow, but becomes a rich mahogany-brown, near the end of its pupa stage. It remains a pupa for about three weeks, when it comes forth from its earthen cocoon as a grayish-brown moth, flecked with darker spots. A conspicuous round dot on each of the fore wings is about one and one half inches. The broods overlap each other to a considerable extent. I have reason to believe there is a late winter or early spring brood, a summer brood, and an autumn brood, which latter rarely does much damage. It is the summer caterpillars that are most to be dreaded.

Natural Enemies
In the summer of 1900 I fed one hundred of these caterpillars, collected rather late in their development as larvae, on alfalfa, and reared only three moths, but secured a regular swarm of Tachina flies. These latter had parasitized the army worm. I think the fact of these numerous flies explains the phenomenon of insect years.

Their abundance nearly exterminates the cutworm, whereupon they die for want of food. Then the moths take advantage of this riddance and commence to multiply, and in three or four years are again alarmingly abundant. This makes a picnic occasion for the parasites, and they again victimize the cutworms even to their own hurt. I have also noticed Carabid beetles, both grub and imago, especially our large Callocoma, preying on these caterpillars extensively. The day of my bicycle ride, already referred to, I saw many a grub sucking the blood and life from much larger cutworms. There was always a struggle, but a vain one for the more sluggish, clumsy caterpillar.

I have protected tomato and cabbage plants by enclosing the latter with sized paper, held by a string at top and the earth below. Bands of tin, loose cotton or tanglofoot about the trunks protect vines and trees. In the vineyards of West Michigan the tin bands are almost universally used, or were twenty years ago. A hole in the center of the band at one end and a long slit in the center of the other make it easy to tack the band, which should be two and one half inches wide, and long enough to encircle the longest tree or vine. These are required to be in place but a short time. Spraying the threatened plants with paris green, one pound to two hundred gallons of water, to which five pounds of freshly slaked lime has been added, will often save such vegetables as sweet and Irish potatoes. Spraying bunches of clover, or other succulent vegetation with this same mixture, or with two pounds of lead arsenate to fifty gallons of water, and placing this in bunches among the plants that are liable to be eaten, has often been used with marked success. It is sometimes thought that this is not successful, for the cutworms are eating the poison, will burrow in the ground and die, though not discovered. A poison bran mash has been used with much success by many of our gardeners. A pound of paris green to forty or fifty pounds of bran, sweetened either by use of cheap sugar or molasses, and sufficient water added to make a stiff mash is placed in small bunches near the plants likely to be attacked.

Many birds prey upon the cutworms and chickens often feed upon them in the alfalfa fields, where they do not enter the earth by day but rest in the shade of the plants.

There are several other species of these moths belonging to the family Noctuidae, so called because they are night fliers. They are attracted by lights, and are often seen in houses behind curtains and shutters. A good way to collect them is to leave the windows uncurtained and open with bright lights in the room. As all are much alike in appearance and habits, the above description will suffice for most of the other species.

DISSOLUTION OF STEEL TRUST TO BE FAVORED

WASHINGTON, July 16.—It was learned today that dissolution of the United States Steel Corporation will be recommended, probably unanimously, by the Stanley steel investigating committee of the House. The committee, in a meeting today, favored such a report. The government suit may be endorsed.

The Republican minority will meet tomorrow in an effort to reach an agreement regarding the procedure. Representatives Gardner of Massachusetts and Young of Michigan are preparing separate reports. The full committee will meet again on Thursday to attempt to reach a final agreement on the minority and majority reports.

ARCHBALD CASE OPENS IN THE SENATE TODAY

WASHINGTON, July 16.—The impeachment trial of Commerce Court Judge Archbald began in the Senate when oaths were administered to senators, and the House managers were ordered to present themselves at the Senate bar. The proceedings were formal.

The senators subscribed to the oath in groups of ten. A resolution was then adopted notifying the House that the Senate was ready to sit as an impeachment court. Within a few minutes the House reported back that its managers would be present at 3 o'clock to continue the trial. The motion of Senator Warren carried, appropriating $10,000 for impeachment expenses. Judge Archbald was directed to appear at 1 o'clock on Friday afternoon to answer to the charges. It is believed Archbald will then ask for sufficient time to perfect his defense plans.

In placing the flag at half-mast, it should be first hoisted to the top of the staff, and then lowered to position. Preliminary to lowering from half-staff it should first be raised to the top.

On Memorial Day the flag should fly at half-staff from sunrise to noon, and full-staff from noon to sunset.

Santa Ana Business Man Married This Forenoon; Bridal Pair off to Magic Island

Mrs. M. A. Pearce and C. R. Titus were united in marriage today at 10:30 o'clock. Rev. M. A. F. Stem, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, pronounced the words of the ceremony. The marriage was a quiet one and took place at the Methodist South parsonage. In a short time after the nuptial vows had been taken, Mr. and Mrs. Titus left for Catalina Island where they will remain for a week.

The bride's going away costume was of handsome blue serge. Her wedding gown was an elaborately trimmed crepe de chine. The groom's gift was a handsome diamond ring.

Mrs. Titus has resided in Southern California but two years, her home state being Wisconsin. After coming to Santa Ana she identified herself with the Methodist Episcopal Church South and has been actively engaged in the work of the Woman's Missionary Society of that church, winning warm friends there and elsewhere.

Mr. Titus is the head of the stock remedies company that bears his name and has resided for many years in Santa Ana where he is well known. The newly married couple will receive many congratulations and good wishes.

LONDON, July 16.—The working-men's insurance law, Lloyd-George's famous measure, yesterday became effective. Ten million wage-earners are benefited.

The new law is a thorn in the side of the employers of Great Britain. Yesterday 10,000 dock workers struck to emphasize their objection to the methods of collection of the insurance premium.

U. S. TRANSPORT WAS ENDANGERED BY BERING SEA FLOES

TACOMA, Wash., July 16.—After having narrowly escaped being sent to the bottom by the ice floes encountered in Bering sea, the United States army transport Sheridan arrived here Sunday night with the Sixteenth United States infantry regiment, and the men told of their thrilling experiences when the vessel was caught in the grip of the ice.

Justice in Hungary
Charles M. Schwab, at a banquet in New York, condemned the severity of certain laws.

"These laws," he said, "are over-severe. They remind me of a Magyar judge. An American tourist once attended a Magyar court of law, and the judge, greatly pleased, invited him to a seat on the bench and proceeded with the first case.

"It was a case about a goose. Three persons were concerned in it—the owner of the bird, the prisoner, and one witness. The case began with the owner or plaintiff.

"Your Honor, he said, 'that man in the dock here stole my goose.'

"Very good. Step down," said the judge. And he turned to the witness: 'What have you got to say?'

"Your Honor, I saw the man in the dock steal the goose."

"Very good. Step down." And the judge now turned to the prisoner:

"And what have you to say on your part?"

"Your Honor, I did not steal the goose."

"Then the judge frowned and, in a deep, impressive voice, delivered judgment.

"Prisoner," he said, "I sentence you to a year's imprisonment for stealing the goose. You, plaintiff, I sentence to a year's imprisonment for not looking after the bird properly. And as for you, witness, I give you a year for not minding your own business."

ORANGE MARSHAL USING MOTORCYCLE

Automobile drivers will find it just as well to drive slow in Orange now that the city marshal of that place has been furnished with a motorcycle. The speed limit is 15 miles an hour and anybody caught driving faster than that is in danger of being hauled before the city recorder to answer to the charge of speeding.

Two local drivers have been caught there within the past week. Ellis H. Smith was called upon last Monday to turn over $10 to the City of Orange. Sunday W. H. Titchenal, proprietor of the Cherry Blossom, was arrested by the marshal and when he appeared before the court yesterday he was fined $10. Mr. Titchenal states that he was going eighteen miles an hour, yet he supposed that drivers would be allowed grace of four or five miles an hour.

This company will be followed Friday and Saturday nights, July 19th and 20th by Col. Mack & Company, a new company which will give a two-act farce entitled "Big and Little Casino and the Joker," at the prices of 10c, 20c and 30c. This promise to be a big laugh-producer. He Said It to the Pastor
Indianapolis News: The pastor of a church in this city went to call on one of his parishioners who lived in a single room in a clubhouse. He rapped on the door. There was no answer for a moment and then a rather suppressed voice said:

"Wait a minute. I can't let you in now—but wait a minute."

He waited. After what seemed several minutes he heard the voice again.

"Now, stand up close to the door and when I open it come in as quickly as you can."

It was the pastor's first call and he began to wonder what sort of Black Hand Society or bomb-making club he was to visit. His worst fears seemed about to realize, for as the door was opened he was met by a streaming red light and an evil smile.

"Hurry," said the host, "or you'll spoil the plate. That lamp always smells like hell."

Then he glanced up and saw who the man was who had invaded his dark room.

OBITUARY

Charles W. Lieser, son of W. J. and Emma F. Lieser, was born at Balwin City, Kansas, October 2, 1874, and died in Santa Ana, California, July 9, 1912.

He was educated at the Gem City Business College, Quincy, Illinois. At the age of 14 years he united with the M. E. church and became an interested worker in the Epworth League. February 14, 1900, he was united in marriage to Ella R. Perckling, at Corder, Mo., to which union two boys were born, Floyd and Raymond, all of whom survive the husband and father. In 1904, both families immigrated from Missouri to California, first settling at Los Gatos, and in 1907 moved to Santa Ana. For five years the subject of this sketch was a great sufferer, much of the time requiring the constant care of his family, yet with all his suffering he was never known to murmur or complain.

His funeral, conducted by Rev. F. S. Haugawout, a friend of the family, took place on Friday afternoon, the 12th, attended by many friends of the family, who presented a profusion of flowers on the occasion, and the remains were laid to rest in the Santa Ana cemetery.

Favor Steam Roller
A proposal was received from Geo. A. Rodgers for trading to the city a steam road roller for the gasoline roller now in use, to accept the old roller at $1400, the new roller to cost $3500. The gasoline roller has not proved satisfactory because the machinery is complicated, and the city has had trouble running it. Water Superintendent Reid and Trustee Grubb reported in favor of the Monarch steam roller. The old roller, bought but a little over a year ago for $3500, is now reported as almost a wreck because of the impossibility of getting a practical man to run it. Ey stated that the city's finances at this time are not in shape to expend $4100.

Reid, Alderman and Greenleaf were appointed as a committee to examine the old roller and the proposed new roller, and recommend some action.

Call For Bids
The clerk was instructed to advertise for bids for city advertising and printing for the year beginning August 1. When the motion was made Alderman moved to amend by leaving out the call for bids for printing, saying he thought it would be best to let the printing as the jobs arrive. He said he thought money could be saved in that way. The city attorney stated that the law requires that both advertising and printing be let out to bids. Alderman moved to amend to give the board the right to reject any or all bids. Heathman said this right is given by law.

Alderman and Grubb said they favored letting the city printing to some printer in Los Angeles or some other town if the prices of the local printer was more than slightly higher than the outside printer's prices. They said that some of the printing here has been a good deal higher than some other cities get it for. McPhee stated that Santa Ana's prices on advertising and printing are less than in many other cities of Southern California.

During the discussion of the provision of the ordinance, the city attorney insisted that contracts for advertising and for printing must be let separately. The city attorney was beginning to get hot under the collar over intimations that his advice might be disregarded. He got the ordinance and began to read it to show that he was right in his contention.

"We understand that," said Ey.
"I don't care if you do," replied the attorney with some heat. "I am going to read this ordinance."

"I'll have to have you removed from

THE RED ORANGES OF OROSI

Attracting Much Attention Among Growers

Think of Oranges almost as red as June apples. That's the sort that grow at Orosi, in the upper part of Tulare county. These Red Oranges are not to be compared with the ordinary "golden" variety—they are larger, richer, juicier, more luscious.

The difference is in the soil, the water, the climate—but particularly in the soil. The answer is, "iron." The great quantity of iron in Orosi soil gives oranges that rich red color that is making Tulare County famous. Growers from all over the state are talking about Tulare County, especially about the Orosi district. New settlers are coming in from all parts of the country; and men already in the district, who have heretofore been content with small acreage, are reaching out for more land.

A man doesn't have to put all his the room if you keep this up," declared Ey, jokingly. The city attorney saw no joke in it, and he replied with emphatic manner: "I don't care what you do, I am going to read this ordinance." And he did.

The call for bids was finally ordered as originally moved. Bids are to be opened on August 5.

Gas Franchise
It was stated that a franchise for the Southern Counties Gas Company had been outlined, and a meeting would be held with officials of that company to go over the provisions. The trustees expect to incorporate some measure that will compel the gas company to make gas connections for houses where a reasonable extension would provide the connection. For instance, it was thought well to make it compulsory to have the pipe laid if there were two houses wanting gas and an extension of 175 or less would give them the service, or five houses and not over 500-foot extension.

The city engineer was instructed to set stakes designating the alley in a block on Flower street, where it is proposed to move some buildings off the alley.

The city attorney stated that City Health Officer Clark and he had gone over the block between Sycamore and Broadway north of First and had found the south half of it to be very unsightly. He said Attorney Forgy had written to the Fairchild-Gillmore-Willson Company, which he represents, asking that the property be cleaned up.

It was decided to investigate to see if refuse on the block north of Birch Park is refused from the park. If it is the city will clean it up, if not the owner will.

The street superintendent was instructed to put another gang of men out to clean weeds from sidewalks.

Will Make Change

Heathman said Attorney Keech had told him that the S. A. V. I. Company would put its West Washington ditch under ground as ordered by the supreme court.

Grubb: "I move that the S. A. V. I. Company be asked to put under ground its West Santa Clara avenue ditch and all other open ditches on city streets."

Ey: "Keech says that each separate ditch constitutes a case in itself that may have to go to the supreme court."

eggs in one basket at Orosi. Other things grow here besides oranges. From a 7-acre peach orchard, Fred Conkey, last year, realized $2100; while George Bartlett took off $5100 from 18½ acres.

Many prominent fruit growers in the Orosi district, who came here poor a few years ago, have grown independent from the products of the soil. And these same men will become rich in the next few years, as land values increase.

A recent purchaser stated the other day that he wouldn't sell his 20-acre tract for less than double what he paid for it. Write Orosi Orange Land Co., owners; M. S. Robertson, Mgr., 301 Story Bldg., Los Angeles, for illustrated folder; or see E. M. Sheridan, office at Dinuba, California, who has auto ready to show the wonderful development and possibilities of the Orosi section to those interested.

because facts differ."

Grubb: "I am tired of this double-acting law suits. As a stockholder of the water company I lose if the water company loses, and as a taxpayer of the city I lose if the city loses."

Alderman: "Well, if the ditch company insists that it will require a lawsuit on every ditch, let's make the city one big ditch and have one grand lawsuit and clean it all up at once."

The city attorney stated that he would have to change the ordinance, which at present describes a district in which open ditches are declared nuisances. He will draw up an ordinance making that district larger.

It was decided to extend the sewer east on Santa Clara as far as the property owners paid for the sewer pipe. Ransom Reid was authorized to have the old gasoline roller put in order and furnish a man to run it.

Ought to be Paid

McPhee was appointed as a committee of one to make an adjustment with Cood Adams for the use of the lot at the corner of Third and Sycamore for hitching rack purposes. It was stated that Adams pays $67 a year taxes on the property, and the city refused to let him rent it for a second-hand yard.

Since Adams was denied this income it was thought only right that the city should pay some rent.

PLAIN STATEMENT FROM PAUL SHOUP

Orange News: The air, from one end of the world to the other, is always full of "rumors"; and are intentionally set about for the express purpose of injuring a certain individual or an enterprise, while others are merely taking a "joy ride" through space for the fun of it. Innocent, foolish perhaps, but practically harmless. Each reader may classify these rumors regarding the electric road as he sees fit. The writer cannot believe there is much intentional wrong at the bottom of them. The report is going the rounds that the P. E. is coming to Orange, but no farther; that on Lemon street the curbing and parking are to be rooted up to make room for the double track; that the P. E. does not intend to electrify the "Tustin branch of the S. P. Ry., etc., etc." At the request of members of the finance committee I wrote to Mr. Shoup in regard to these matters and today received the following reply:

Shoup's Letter
Los Angeles, Cal., July 12, 1912.
Mr. S. M. Craddick, Orange, Cal.:

Dear Mr. Craddick—Your favor of the 10th, which came while I was out of town.

I have said very distinctly that it was our intention to build through Orange or beyond, and that I especially hope to secure the line north of Orange, now owned by the Southern Pacific Company, of which they are not making much use, and connect it with this line. I have also said that I could not at this time say when that work will be done. I think my memorandum to your committee covers the situation, but if there is any point that is vague, let me know.

As to the double track and its effect upon the trees, the very best way for your committee to determine that is to look at the double track on Santa Ana streets, where they have shade trees on the sidewalks, or in any other place that you choose. We certainly won't disturb the trees any more than possible, and I know of no reason for interfering with the curb at all.

Yours truly,
PAUL SHOUP.

The committee of seven who have had the matter in hand for several months are thoroughly convinced that the road will be built just as outlined at our last public meeting and since given out through the local papers. A letter from Mr. Shoup in the hands of our committee says Orange will be on main line between Riverside and the beaches; while another states that we are on the main line between Los Angeles and San Diego. All of these statements are true. What more do we want? What more can we ask? We are not promised a fulfillment of these promises at once. It may be a year or two years; but we will have it complete before we have the Panama canal complete, and when this network of interurbans is complete, Orange and vicinity will be benefited thereby hundreds of thousands of dollars. Everyone who has subscribed or who expects to subscribe to the right-of-way fund has a perfect right to ask questions and to know what he or she is to get in return for their money.

The committee will answer your questions emphatically or write for you to Mr. Shoup and publish his reply; but for the good of the good work in hand, please do not depend on rumors.

S. M. CRADDICK, Chairman.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

Local eggs declined 1 cent all around on the produce exchange yesterday. There also was a drop of 1 cent a pound on broilers, roasters and fryers in the producers' list. New range for local eggs is from 21 to 29 cents a dozen. Broilers are quoted at 17 and 19 cents, fryers at 22 and roasters at 23 cents a pound. Despite light receipts cantaloupes declined about 20 cents a crate. The receipts yesterday were five carloads and the demand could have consumed ten. The reduction is due to the inferior grade of lemons now coming into market.

Lemons were scarce, advancing to 24 a box on the exchange. Good lemons were hard to get and the supply of all kinds was limited. Alexander apples were listed at $1.50 a 4-lb box. Astrachans advanced to $1.75, a difference of ten cents a box. Was beans declined to 3 and 4 cents and green beans experienced a similar drop. Green chili dropped 5 cents a pound to 15 cents.

The first large shipment of nectarines arrived, one-half carload, selling at 6 cents a pound. Burbank plums were in large receipts, selling at $1.50 a 4-bushel crate. Peaches were plentiful and cheap, with some talk of an over-supply during the week.

The banana shortage prevailing Saturday was relieved by the arrival of six carloads, two of which were ripe. Bananas were steady at quotations. Watermelons were good sellers at 3 to 4 cents a pound. Pineapples were again plentiful at 7 and 8 cents a pound.

Tomatoes were scarce, there being practically no fancy stock on hand. The scarcity affected both Imperial and local stock. The best tomatoes brought $1.25 a box. Corn experienced a drop, to 65 cents a bag. Corn arrived from both local and outside points and met with a ready sale at the reduction.

Carload shipments, estimated, were 25 carloads of fruit. Of this amount:

BELIEVE THEM
CROOKED PAIR

Two Young Men With Worthless Check Hire Attorney to Try to Free Them

Two young men who say their names are Thomas D. Salmon and Sanford Johnson, picked up late at night by city officers, seem to be in a fair way to be shown up as crooks. At least that is the way it appears to the officers.

They were arrested and charged with vagrancy, wandering about at late and unusual hours of the night without any lawful business. Yesterday afternoon they were convicted of the charge and each was sent to jail for ten days. The sheriff's office made out thorough descriptions of the two, and will send them out over the state, believing that the two are criminals wanted elsewhere.

They are very anxious to get away. When arrested a check was found in the pocket of one of the two. The Los Angeles bank has given information that it is a worthless check. Sewed in the clothing of one of the men was found $58.

An indication of the anxiety to get out of jail in a hurry lies in the fact that they hired Attorney Harding today. He says he will go to the superior court and try to get them out on habeas corpus because they are not vagrants.

AT THE COURTHOUSE

CASE OF HANG OR TO PRISON

Jury That Tried George Biggs Received His Case at 2:30 O'Clock Today

At 2:30 o'clock this afternoon the twelve men who have heard the evidence against George Biggs, charged with the murder of his neighbors, Francis A. Montee and Mrs. Montee, east of Anaheim, on April 12, filed from the jury-box and were locked up to decide the man's fate. Those who have been in the courtroom agree that the verdict will be either hanging or life imprisonment.

The prosecution finished its evidence yesterday with the testimony of J. S. Howard, photographer, Carl Simmons, Dr. H. A. Johnston, Deputy Sheriff Squires and Joseph O'Donnell. This morning attorneys Bishop and Harding stated that the defense would put in no evidence, and final arguments were immediately begun. Deputy District Attorney Koepsel reviewed the evidence for the state, and was followed by Harding and Bishop, District Attorney West closed this afternoon and the case went to the jury.

The tenor of the defense was a plea to save Biggs' neck. It was more a request that the jury give the man life imprisonment than it was that he be excused for the awful murder of Mr. and Mrs. Montee.

Biggs sat in his chair, uncouth in appearance, his bushy beard hiding almost his whole face but his eyes. He nervously rubbed the fingers of his right hand over the edge of the table and over his left hand.

In addition there are two elegant Hot Springs Resorts, and the famous Mountain Resort of Idylwild near by, all contributing their share to the desirability of SAN JACINTO and vicinity as a home site.

In fact our beautiful valley has so much to offer in the way of inducements at this particular time, that anything in the form of advice from us, except a direct invitation to come and see with your own eyes, would be a useless expenditure of time, and possibly the loss of a good opportunity. Your eyes will tell you more than could be expressed in volumes. They will give you the whole truth, and in time to act to advantage. If you decide to come, either to look the Valley over, or as a prospective neighbor,

GONE FROM HOSPITAL

Left Alone For a Few Minutes, He Wandered Away and Has Not Been Found

George Karpenshon, a Roumanian, wandered away today from the Santa Ana Hospital. The man was arrested a week ago while wandering stark naked in Serrano Canyon. OROZCO SAYS AMNESTY NOT TO BE ACCEPTED BY MANY

JUAREZ, Mex., July 16.—General Pascual Orozco, Jr., will not be surprised if a part of his army accepts the amnesty offered by the Mexican government, but this part he characterizes as made up of bandits and mere enemies whose withdrawal would be the revolution's gain. He denied negotiating with the government for peace.

"All bandits will accept the proffered amnesty," said General Orozco today, "but those revolutionists of good faith, those who are willing to lose their lives for the holy cause of the people never will accept it."
